POWER TO THE FAINT

2021 - MY YEAR OF MANIFESTING GOD'S GOODNESS

"And thou saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude", (Gen 32:12)

The pandemic, economic collapse, political crisis and protests around the globe are signs of a fainting world, wrapped in darkness making people plunging into deep sadness and hopelessness. The recent occurrences in the world have put people in fear, expecting the next worse scenario. Life can be very exhausting. Physical and emotional distress set in when pursuing our goals. The race is not for the faint hearted. "To this day we are aware of the universal agony and groaning of creation, as if it were in the contractions of labor for childbirth", (Rom. 8:22 (TPT)).

It is possible to be physically strong and able, but the soul is weak and the spirit is fainted. When Jesus was confronted by the agony of the cross, He said: "Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak", (Matt. 26:41). Although, Jesus was bodily drained, but with a sound mind and willing spirit, He defied the weakness and triumphed over all oppositions.

Weariness and faint heartedness affect people of all ages. "Even the youths shall faint and be weary, And the young men shall utterly fall", (Isa. 40:30). Both young and old are ambitious about life, facing unimaginable temptations and insurmountable experiences; however, "If you fall apart during a crisis, then you weren't very strong to begin with", (Prov. 24:10 (VOICE)).

The word "faint" appeared first in the Bible in connection to Esau. "And Jacob sod pottage: and Esau came from the field, and he was faint", (Gen. 25:29 (KJV)). In fact, the first and second occasions related to Esau. "And Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, with that same red pottage; for I am faint: therefore was his name called Edom", (Gen. 25:30 (KJV)). Esau returned from hunting famished, wearied, weak and fainted. He may be hungry, starving and thirsty, however, as the elder brother, he had the right to everything in the house, but because he fainted, he lost consciousness of his right, hence, he begged for what was his. Only asked for food but Jacob responded with a deeper interpretation of the situation. "But Jacob said, "Sell me your birthright as of this day"', (Gen. 25:31). Jacob discerned not just physical fainting, but also famishing of the soul and weak spirit. He demanded for the birthright.

Just like a fainting man had lost strength to fight back, so did Esau. He was too weak to resist, neither could he turn down the request, nor understood the implication of his action.

A fainting soul despised the most valuable asset of his life

Just as Esau traded away his right to blessing, so can anybody whose soul is famished. When Jacob demanded for the birthright, what was the response of the fainting soul? "And Esau said, "Look, I am about to die; so what is this birthright to me?"' (Gen. 25:32). Esau surrendered his birthright and faced the eternal consequences. A fainting soul despised the most valuable asset of his life. Your birthright is your right to inheritance with special privileges. It is the mantle to lead your generation. It gives access to generational blessings. However good and hardworking you are, gaining access to blessing makes you much more profitable. Regardless of your position in the family, your birthright is your mantle to unblock favor and rise above your generational limitation.

What could be the possible reasons for Esau to be so fainted that he lost his birthright? "But the children struggled together within her; and she said, "If all is well, why am I like this?"' So she went to inquire of the LORD"', (Gen. 25:22).

The struggle for birthright between Esau and Jacob began from the womb. At birth Jacob was holding on tightly to the heel of Esau. "Afterward his brother came out, and his hand took hold of Esau's heel; so his name was called Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when she bore them", (Gen. 25:26). However, both children were exposed to equal opportunities growing up. "As Jacob and Esau grew older, Esau liked the outdoors and became a good hunter, while

Do not allow fainting spirit to quench your light. A fainting soul expresses despondency with wrong approaches to life.

Jacob settled down and became a shepherd", (Gen. 25:27 (CEV)). As the boys grew, Esau patterned his life contrary to the family heritage and chose a wrong role model. He became a hunter after the order of Nimrod. "He was a mighty hunter before the LORD; therefore it is said, "Like Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD"', (Gen. 10:9). As Nimrod's empire perished, so did Esau's. A fainting soul follows a wrong path and chooses an unprofitable lifestyle. But Jacob focused on heritage sustained by eternal covenant.

The growing child in the womb searches for significance, security, acceptance, love and appreciation. Even after birth the search for meaning and purpose continues. But a fainting soul easily gets diverted and pursues things that lack enduring success.

Jonah was another man who was sent on a mission, but fainted. He said "When my soul fainted within me, I remembered the LORD; And my prayer went up to You, Into Your holy temple", (Jonah 2:7). "And it happened, when the sun arose, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat on Jonah's head, so that he grew faint. Then he wished death for himself, and said, "It is better for me to die than to live"', (Jonah 4:8). Jonah fainted when he acted contrary to the Divine assignment, "'Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry out against it; for their wickedness has come up before Me.'" But Jonah arose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid the fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD", (Jonah 1:2-4). With a contradicting mind set, Jonah "paid the fare" to a stormy voyage.

A fainting man is a drowning man with a confused mind trapped with fear desiring fresh breath to recover from the weeds wrapped around his head (Jonah 2:5). Truly speaking, many people need to disentangle their minds from fear, doubt, bitterness, lust, greed and pride. These could cause so much frustration and heaviness of the mind resulting to shipwreck of the soul.

Gideon was the man considered to "... faint, yet pursuing”, (Judges 8:4). Exhausted and famished but not losing hope. It is therefore possible to be overwhelmed and troubled but not given up. Tired, but not losing focus. In the days of Gideon, Israel was under the captivity of Midian for seven years. Midian means “strife”. “And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel ...”, (Judges 6:2). Simply put, “strife prevailed against Israel”.

“For wherever there is jealousy (envy) and contention (rivalry and selfish ambition), there will also be confusion (unrest, disharmony, rebellion) and all sorts of evil and vile practices”, (James 3:16 (AMPC)). Never be overpowered by hostility and discord. Quarrelling and offenses can be very draining. They are power leakers. Just as the Israelites hid themselves in dens and caves because of the Midianites, even so are many people hidden and their glory undiscovered.

When strife (Midian) prevailed, what were the consequences?

- Their harvest was invaded (Judges 6:3).
- “And they encamped against them ...”, (v4) – A life style of strife incites troubles and prevents you from flourishing in your true identity.
- “... and destroyed the increase of the earth”, (v4) – A fainting man decreases in energy and productivity. Fainting spirit makes people live unprofitable life.
- “... and left no substance for Israel ...”, (v4) – Nothing is spared when fainting spirit sets in. A fainting man loses grip of what is holding on to, however valuable it may be.
- “... and they entered into the land to destroy it”, (v5) – When strife gains entrance into any life, it opens the door to numerous tormenting spirits; they come “with their tents”, “as grasshoppers for multitude”, (v5).

“So Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites, and the children of Israel cried out to the LORD”, (Judges 6:6). When (Midian) strife prevailed against Israel:

- “So Israel became poverty-stricken”, (CSB)
- “So Israel became very weak ...”, (CEB)
- “Israel became very discouraged ...”, (CJB)
- “Israel became very poor ...”, (ERV)
- “And Israel was helpless against them”, (GNT)
- “And Israel was brought very low ...”, (RSV)

When God raised-up Gideon to lead his people out of the oppression, He addressed him from the position of strength, looking beyond his weakness. “And the Angel of the LORD appeared to him, and said to him, “The LORD is with you, you mighty man of valor!”” (Judges 6:12). But Gideon responded from a fainting soul. “Gideon said to Him, “O my lord, if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where are all His miracles which our fathers told us about, saying, ‘Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt?’ But now the LORD has forsaken us and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites””, (Judges 6:13). Hear the cry of a fainting man (v13) “if”, “why”, “then”, “where”, “did not”, “but”, “forsaken” and “handed over”. A fainting man will always express doubts, regrets and failure. Nonetheless, the angel did not change his stand on making Gideon to arise in strength. “Then the LORD turned to him and said, “Go in this might of yours, and you shall save Israel from the hand of the Midianites. Have I not sent you?”” (Judges 6:14).’

Gideon was also concerned about the wretchedness of his family. “So he said to Him, “O my Lord, how can I save Israel? Indeed my clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father’s house””, (Judges 6:15). After this encounter Gideon built an altar unto the Lord and name it “Jehovah Shalom” (v24) – “The Lord is peace”. “The Lord calms our fears”. The peace of God calms our fears and revives us from fainting. “And by Him to reconcile all things to Himself, by Him, whether things on earth or things in heaven, having made peace through the blood of His cross”, (Col. 1:20).

David, the King of Israel was a valiant warrior yet he fainted. “Moreover the Philistines had yet war

It is therefore possible to be overwhelmed and troubled but not given up again with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines: and David waxed faint. And Ishbubenob, which was of the sons of the giant, the weight of whose spear weighed three hundred shekels of brass in weight, he being girded with a new sword, thought to have slain David. But Abishai the son of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David swore unto him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the light of Israel", (2 Sam. 21:15-17 (KJV)).

"... and David waxed faint", (v15). What caused the fainting? David fainted because, "the Philistine had yet war again with Israel". The Philistine having been defeated over and over again never gave up. So repeated warfare and persistent attacks can cause the people to faint. This time, "David went down", (v15). The approach and the strategy of warfare was a downward path of defeat.

"... and his servants with him". When David went down, his men also went down with him. Leaning upon a fainting man brings everybody to the ditch. Do not heed to fainting spirit, it influences people around you to be as weak as you. When David became weak, one of the sons of the giants, "Ishbubenob", (v16), rose up against him to smite. The adverse effect of not working on our weaknesses is that, it produces giants out of adversaries.

When Saul and his men of war could not war against the Philistines, a giant confronted them day and night. He defiled the ranks of Israel till they lost courage and very terrified.

Nobody could challenge him until David rose up to rescue Israel from the reproach. While the people were petrified with the size and how Goliath was arrayed for battle, David looked past the giant and saw the mightiness of the God of Israel establishing victory. David, the same David who defeated Goliath could not overcome another giant because he waxed faint. Comparing the two giants, Goliath and Ishbubenob.

"And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. And he had an helmet of brass upon his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass. And he had greaves of brass upon his legs, and a target of brass between his shoulders. And the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and one bearing a shield went before him", (1 Sam. 17:4-7(KJV)). "Then Ishbi-Benob, who was one of the sons of the giant, the weight of whose bronze spear was three hundred shekels, who was bearing a new sword, thought he could kill David", (2 Sam 21:16).

It is time to acknowledge our weaknesses and actively work on overcoming and turning them to success.

Goliath was stronger and well equipped for battle. Goliath's spear head weighed "600 Shekels of iron" while Ishibibenob's spear head weighed "300 Shekels of brass". Goliath's spear head was stronger and harder, yet he was defeated by David. But when David fainted, the giant with an inferior weapon almost killed him. When we are full of strength, we can overcome the strongest giant, but when we are weak and faint hearted even the weakest weapon can bring us down.

It is time to acknowledge our weaknesses and actively work on overcoming and turning them to success. Who was the giant that rose up against David when he fainted? Ishbibenob. His name means: "dweller on the mount". The wicked always want to gain an advantaged height to monitor our advancement. Even though David was a King, nonetheless, his adversary dwelling on the mountain looked down on his royalty, despised his achievements, watching for the right time to invade.

Ishbibenob was "girded with a new sword", (v16). A new sword (weapon) – improved, redesigned, advanced and distinct. With this new sword, "he thought to have slain David", (v16).

Repeated battles are not just another battle, rather an improved, redesigned, advance and distinct from previous battles. Persistent problems, if not resolved get twisted and complex. At David's weakest moments, "Abishai" came to his rescue (v17). Abishai means "father of a gift". A father is considered as a ruler of a generation. So, David received not just an ordinary help in his weakness, but the help that rules. May we receive help that rules over the oppressors and their oppression. Abishai was an ideal gift. A suitable gift, so generously lavished to a fainting man. Neglect not your own gifts. Stir it up, fan to flame, rekindle and bring your gifts to blazing fire. Use and grow your gifts (1 Tim. 4:14; 2 Tim. 1:6) Hence, David's men told him "You shall go out no more with us to battle, lest you quench the lamp of Israel", (v17). David got true help that will fight the rest of his battles. Persistent conflict is intended to break our defenses, put people in darkness and extinguish their burning lamp.

Do not allow fainting spirit to quench your light. A fainting soul expresses despondency with wrong approaches to life. "Therefore, since we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we do not lose heart. But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness nor handling the word of God deceitfully, but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves

we can overcome the strongest giant, but when we are weak and faint hearted even the weakest weapon can bring us down.

to every man's conscience in the sight of God", (2 Cor. 4:1-2). "Have you not known? Have you not heard? The everlasting God, the LORD, The Creator of the ends of the earth, Neither faints nor is weary. His understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the weak, And to those who have no might He increases strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, And the young men shall utterly fall, But those who wait on the LORD Shall renew their strength; They shall mount up with wings like eagles, They shall run and not be weary, They shall walk and not faint", (Isa. 40:28-31).

- ❖ The 21st Year of the 21st Century.
- ❖ The 2nd Year of the 2020 Decade.
- ❖ Year 2021 is also the Hebrew Year 5781 - Year of Pey-Alef.
- The Year of mouth and strength. "For it was I, the LORD your God, who rescued you from the land of Egypt. Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it with good things", (Psa. 81:10 (NLT)).
- ❖ It is the Year of "SELAH" – (pause and calmly; think of that). An interval between what had taken place and what's next.
 - It shall be a "Stormy Selah" and "Triumphing Selah".
 - "Stormy Selah" – It's time to ride above the storms, leaping for joy as God's terror stills the storms.
 - "Triumphing Selah" – Rejoicing and celebrating as our sorrow turns to joy.
- ❖ This is the Year to proclaim victories over the fury of the oppressors.
- ❖ The Year comes with a command, "Arise and Lead", (Judges 5:12).
 - True leadership is lacking in our generation.
 - Leadership is not a title or position; rather it's connecting to the creative mandate (Gen. 1:28).
- ❖ Resurrected Jesus the Architect, the Foundation and the Head of the Church is purging and building His Church. Therefore, watch out for glory manifestation. (Psa. 110:1-3; 102:16-17; Matt. 16:18).

ISRAEL

- ❖ Year 2021 is also the Hebrew Year 5781.
- ❖ Year 5781 $\Rightarrow 5 + 7 + 8 + 1 = 21$.
- ❖ See the uniqueness of Year 2021 as it sums up with Hebrew Year.
- ❖ The Hebrew prophetic symbol of 21 - Schin (Tooth).
- ❖ "For a nation has come up against My land, Strong, and without number; His teeth are the teeth of a lion", (Joel 1:6).

TESTIMONIES-PRAISE REPORT

"And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony," (Rev. 12:11).

DIVINELY PROTECTED FROM COVID-19

I give thanks to God Almighty, Who loves me so much. I am a frontline health worker, in a long-term care home. Corona virus invaded our facility whereby both patients and workers died. I had corona virus test multiple times, but came out negative. Even though I was exposed to the virus, I held on to God's promise: "A thousand may fall at your side, And ten thousand at your right hand; But it shall not come near you", (Psalm 91:7).

To God be the glory that the Blood of Jesus was the covering for me and my family!

MY VOW OF COMMITMENT

I became a born-again Christian twenty five years ago. I have been serving God since then, and upholding the Christian values. The pandemic was my wake-up call. It was an eye opener for me. Thank God for the Holy Spirit for convicting me to my lack of commitment to God. All the while, I thought I was doing well with my walk with God until the Holy Spirit convicted me that I am not prepared for the coming of the Lord Jesus.

I recommitted my life to Jesus and the Great Commission of soul winning is my goal. The corona virus and the global crisis brought the Word of God alive. "But it is good for me to draw near to God; I have put my trust in the Lord GOD, That I may declare all Your works", (Psa. 73:28). "Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded", (James 4:8).

SHIELDED BY THE BLOOD OF JESUS

What a Mighty God I serve. Truly, I can confidently say, "Through the LORD's mercies we are not consumed, Because His compassions fail not. They are new every morning; Great is Your faithfulness. "The LORD is my portion," says my soul, "Therefore I hope in Him!" (Lam. 3:22-24). My wife and daughter are both frontline health worker during the corona virus. I was deeply concerned when their hospital got hit with the virus. I was much more concerned about the safety of the family. I turned my fears to God and He shielded us by His mercies. We are all alive and well because the Blood of Jesus defended us.

GOOD JOB IN THE MIDST OF PANDEMIC

I have been in and out of jobs since I graduated seven years ago. No steady income for the past seven years. During corona virus, I applied for a permanent position; and after several interviews, I got the job. It was my dream job. When many people are losing their jobs, the Lord secured me a good job. More importantly, God kept me safe and secured my future.

Praise the Lord!
